

Health. Wellness. And Wonders.

The Center for Discovery Acknowledgement Form – Compliance Training and Education

Date of Training: _____
Location: _____

Time of Training: _____
Instructor: _____

Contents

- The Center for Discovery’s Corporate Compliance Plan
- Standards of Conduct
- Prevention of Fraud, Waste, and Abuse
- Federal False Claims Act
- NY False Claims Act
- Whistleblower Protections
- Non-retaliation and Non-intimidation Policy
- The Role of the Corporate Compliance Officer (CCO) and the Compliance Committee
- Reporting and Investigation of Compliance Concerns
- Disciplinary Standards
- Communication Channels (including name of CCO and methods to report)

- I acknowledge that I have attended Compliance training on this date. I have been provided with the opportunity to ask any questions that I may have.
- I acknowledge that I have received and read a copy of the Compliance Plan and the Standards of Conduct.
- I understand that I must comply with the Corporate Compliance Program, the Standards of Conduct, all laws, regulations, policies and procedures, and guidance provided.
- I understand that I must report any instances of known or suspected fraud, waste, and abuse; illegal or unethical acts; actual or suspected violations of Federal or State laws and regulations; actual or suspected violations of the Standards of Conduct, the Corporate Compliance Program, and The Center for Discovery’s policies and procedures; improper acts in the delivery or billing of services; and other wrongdoing (collectively referred to as “compliance concerns”) to a member of Management or the Compliance Officer.
- I understand that The Center for Discovery maintains a hotline (845-794-4870) for confidential or anonymous reporting of compliance concerns
- I understand that my failure to comply with the Compliance Program, the Standards of Conduct, laws, regulations, and The Center for Discovery’s policies and procedures or to report possible violations may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, contract, assignment or association with The Center for Discovery.

Print Name _____

Title _____

Signature _____

Date _____